

Alan M. Klinger Co-Managing Partner

Alan Klinger, Stroock's Co-Managing Partner and Co-Chair of the Litigation Group, represents parties in complex civil litigation and has a proven track record of achieving successful results, whether through negotiation or litigation. He also leads the firm's representation of public sector unions and employee benefits funds and is a member of our Government Relations Group.

Alan provides outside counsel to, among others, the United Federation of Teachers, Uniformed Sanitationmen's Association and New York City Employees Union Local 237 Funds. He also regularly represents the New York City Municipal Labor Committee, a consortium of the City's municipal unions, in major litigation and amicus curiae filings. Alan also acts as pro bono counsel to the Association of State Supreme Court Justices. His government relations work involves representing clients in administrative proceedings, health care and land use.

Alan has been nationally ranked in The Legal 500. Benchmark Litigation has named him a "Litigation Star" in 2019 and in past years. Long recognized by Best Lawyers for his work in multiple areas of litigation, including labor & employment, ERISA and land use & zoning, Alan has also been ranked in Super Lawyers. He is a frequent lecturer and co-author on issues relating to labor law and collective bargaining, along with attorney-client privilege/work product doctrine. He has also served as an adjunct professor of civil procedure.

Alan is the recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's Edward Brodsky Founder's Award for the New York Region as well as having received the Lawyers Alliance for New York's "Cornerstone Award" for outstanding pro bono legal service for his work on behalf of children.

Representative Matters

Among his many successful cases, Alan has:

- On behalf of public employee unions, successfully arbitrated contract impasse proceedings before the New York State Public Employment Relations Board and the New York City Office of Collective Bargaining; prevailed against the City in "scoping" and contract enforcement proceedings; obtained a judgment against the City and related governmental entities to enforce statutorily mandated inspection and repair of public premises; successfully brought suit against retirement systems and governmental entities accomplishing change in the method for computation of retirement benefits; and submitted amicus briefs on behalf of labor unions in issues of national
