

Daniel A. Fliman

Partner

Daniel Fliman is a partner in the Financial Restructuring Group, and serves as a co-leader of its “Impact Litigation” Business Unit. Dan maintains a diverse restructuring and litigation practice, representing creditors, shareholders, boards, debtors, investors and purchasers in distressed contexts. He advises stakeholders such as principals, hedge funds and financial institutions with interests in companies positioned for turnaround.

Dan has worked with clients across a range of industries, including real estate, gaming, airline, oil & gas, retail, satellite communications, entertainment and publishing to provide valuable solutions for maximizing the recovery on their interests. He has played significant roles in some of the largest bankruptcies in the United States, including the Puerto Rico Title III proceedings and the Lehman Brothers and Caesars Entertainment Operating Co. bankruptcy cases.

Dan has been the recipient of several awards and honors for his work, including being named by Turnarounds and Workouts as an “Outstanding Young Restructuring Lawyer,” and by Benchmark Litigation as part of their Under 40 Hot List. He has also been recognized by The Legal 500 United States, Super Lawyers and Best Lawyers in America.
