

Eric S. Aronson Partner

Eric S. Aronson is, first and foremost, a trial lawyer with broad experience in trial and appellate courts. He has tried cases in federal and state courts all over the country and has handled domestic and international arbitrations. He has argued appeals in numerous U.S. Circuit Courts and is admitted to practice before the Second, Third and Eighth Circuits, as well as the United States Court of International Trade.

Eric handles a wide variety of litigation and routinely acts for companies and their management in areas such as securities, general commercial and contractual disputes, real estate, insurance, health care and environmental disputes. With a focus on problem solving, Eric handles matters for financial institutions, closely held corporations, real estate developers, leading pharmaceutical and healthcare companies, and various private equity groups and their portfolio companies. As a business-oriented lawyer, he also advises companies and their management on risk management and litigation avoidance.

Eric is a member of the Governing Board of America Needs You, and former Board Member, St. Jude's Children's Hospital "Rock for Hope" Wall Street fundraiser, among other professional and community activities.
