

Elizabeth "Tina" Milburn Associate

Tina Milburn is an associate in Stroock's litigation department, where she focuses her practice on complex commercial litigation and regulatory matters.

Her experience includes breach of contract and insurance disputes, bankruptcy-related litigation, union and collective bargaining issues and civil rights matters, including a major Title VII class action.

Tina is also an active pro bono counsel. Her pro bono representations include the National Institute for Reproductive Health, the Transgender Legal Defense and Education Fund's Name-Change Project and Her Justice.

New York

Phone: 212-806-1257

Fax: 212-806-6006

ecmilburn@stroock.com

Related Services

- Government Affairs & Regulatory Support

Education

- J.D., Fordham Law School, 2018, Notes & Articles Editor, Fordham International Law Journal, Jessup Research Editor, Fordham Moot Court Board
- M.A., Tufts University, 2012
- B.A., magna cum laude, Tufts University, 2011

Honors & Awards

- Archibald R. Murray Public Service Award, Fordham University School of Law

Memberships

- Women in the Legal Profession Committee, New York City Bar Association (2020-2023)

Clerkships

- Law Clerk, Honorable Martin Glenn, United States Bankruptcy Court, Southern District of New York, 2019-2020

Languages

- French
- Spanish

Admitted To Practice

- New York