Julie E. Nevins

Partner

Julie Nevins has been litigating complex commercial disputes for over 20 years. She handles a broad range of matters, including insurance coverage, bad faith, business torts, contracts, real property, outdoor advertising and intellectual property.

No matter what the substantive area, Julie views each matter as a unique problem to be solved creatively and efficiently to meet the client's particular goals.

Julie has experience with various types of insurance coverage, including commercial general liability, professional liability, directors and officers, property and casualty, and media liability. In addition to litigating, Julie provides counseling on coverage and claims handling.

Julie also counsels clients in the outdoor advertising area on compliance with state and municipal sign law and assists them in navigating Florida's regulatory landscape.

Julie earned her J.D. from Florida State University. She was Editor-in-Chief of the Florida State University Law Review and a member of the Order of the Coif.
