

Kara Altman*

Associate

Kara Altman is an associate in the firm's Tax practice. She advises funds, large banks, and private clients on fund formation and operation, strategic acquisitions, structured notes, and tax-efficient structuring. Additionally, Kara drafts and negotiates provisions related to hedge and private equity fund formations, partnership interest acquisitions, partnership recapitalizations and contributions, sale documents, investment agreements, LLC agreements, side letters and indemnities.

Admitted to practice only in New York. Supervised by members of the Firm who are members of the District of Columbia Bar.*

Washington, DC

Fax: 202.739.2895
kaltman@stroock.com

Related Services

- Government Affairs & Regulatory Support
- Private Client Services
- Tax Compliance & Controversy

Education

J.D., LL.M. Georgetown University Law Center
B.A. Stanford University

Admitted To Practice

New York

Memberships

- New York State Bar Association
- The American Bar Association
- Co-Chair of the Health and Wellness Committee, Federal Bar Association, 2021-2022
- D.C. Office Representative, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan Associates' Committee