Claims Trading

Our Financial Restructuring Group regularly advises clients on the trading of par and distressed instruments, including private debt and equity, syndicated loans and bilateral loans, as well as trade and other types of claims that arise in bankruptcy and insolvency proceedings.

Broker-dealers, hedge funds and investment banks turn to us for guidance in the acquisition and disposition of securities, loans and claims in distressed situations, both in- and out-of-court. Our lawyers leverage their reorganization experience with their proficiency in capital markets to provide seamless, strategic investment and restructuring advice. This integrated approach allows us to structure, negotiate and execute trades that maximize value for our clients.
